Accused City Chief
Claims He Did Try To Accountant.

BY WALTER T. BROWN.
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, AL-
BANY, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Leaning forward across his executive desk, Governor Roosevelt turned today the full force of his examination of Mayor Walker on outer charges toward an explanation of why the mayor failed to get in touch with Russell T. Sherwood, the missing accountant, who reportedly handled financial transactions of nearly a million.

On the stand for the fourth day, Walker steadfastly maintained he didn't know Sherwood's whereabouts, that he had made every effort to get in touch with him and that his relations with Sherwood were only routine business affairs.

Outside the "hall of governors," where the hearing was in progress, Walker was asked if the "unknown person" whose receipt of $41,000 from Sherwood had been mentioned were Betty Compton, the actress.

"Who do you suppose it was," was Walker's reply.

On the witness stand Walker disclaimed authorizing Sherwood to issue a letter of credit, or to transfer stock in the Brooklyn Manhattan Transit Company to the "unknown person."

He said the "unknown person" was a woman and a friend of his.

Roosevelt read from the investigation record that a letter of credit was given to the "unknown person" by Sherwood in the spring of 1931, and that it was increased from time to time during the summer. The mayor said he knew nothing about the credit letter, adding:

"I do know that Sherwood handled income tax matters for the unnamed person and an examination of her accounts would show she had several bank accounts in the city."

"That was the first indication that the mystery person was a woman," the mayor replied. "She was a friend of yours," and Mr. Walker replied "yes."

"Do you know of any reason why Sherwood should have arranged this letter of credit for her," was the next question.

LEADING MARKETS EXTEND ADVANCE DESPITE SELLING

Cotton Pushes Ahead to Point More Than $14 Above Lows Established on June 10.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—In the face of intermittent selling, the securities markets made further substantial advances today, which boosted many issues, mostly rails, to new high levels for the summer recovery.

The stock market opened with one of the most exciting rushes of buying of the year, which swept prices of many leaders up $1 to $8 a share.

There was a substantial letdown in shares later, apparently reflecting disappointing action of wheat, but stocks strengthened again in the final dealings, and many issues finished $1 to $4 a share higher.

Price averages indicated the stock market had in the aggregate retraced the ground they lost in the setback late last week. Many of the industrial had failed to return to the highs of last week, but many of the rails and a few utilities were actually higher.

Trading was in large volume in the early dealings, but slackened on the decline. The turnover in the stock exchanges, however, reached 3,611,575 shares, or some 1,700,000 more than yesterday's.

The bond market bulged up in the best advance since last Thursday, and prices in the aggregate reached the best level since the end of March. Trading was active, transacting an aggregate of $15,205,000 par value.

Wheat at Chicago pushed up about a cent a bushel under yesterday's final prices. Cotton advanced nearly $1 a bale to new highs for the movement, but its advances were cut to 20 to 50 cents at the close. At one time prices averaged $14 above the June 10 lows. Both raw and refined sugar advanced to the best prices of

HITLER TO REFUSE ANY COMPROMISE WITH GOVERNMENT

Communists Also Level Bitter Fire at Von Pa- pen Regime, Threaten- ing General Strike.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Scathing attacks were launched today against the government of Chancellor Franz Von Papen by Adolf Hitler, leader of the national socialists, the strongest party in the nation, and by Ernst Thaelmann, chairman of Germany's 3,500,000 communists.

Hitler assailed the government as "leading straight to chaos" and declared that never would he compromise with it.

Thaelmann, warning on the government and on the Hitlerites alike, laid down a program of agitation to culminate in a general strike in all cities.

"We must place the masses of the people in the fight against the government and the national socialist line of offense," the communist leader said in an appeal to his followers.

Hitler's statement was his first public utterance since his interview last Saturday with President Paul von Hindenburg in which he demanded the chancellorship for himself and was denied it, whereupon he refused to take a secondary place in the cabinet.

"My followers would never have understood it if I had accepted the compromise suggested by President von Hindenburg," the Nazi leader said.

To Continue Fight.

His statement, issued at the Munich headquarters of his party, was a notification that "we know how we are going to continue the fight."

Asserting that his lieutenants always would forgive him if he made a mistake but never would if he renounces his principles, Hitler declared: "I'll never sell my movement for a mess of pottage. On matters of principle there can be no compromise. One cannot expect heroism from a people if the leaders make intolerable compromises."

The communist attack was exactly as fiery. Declaring that the result of the government must be "on the widest possible basis," Thaelmann told his followers:

"Economic strikes, agitation by the unemployed, rent strikes and lastly a general strike in all cities—that's the line of fight. The party should facilitate the assembly of these weapons."

748 Persons Rescued As River Ship Sinks

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Seven hundred and forty-eight passengers and a crew of 33 men were removed safely from the excursion steamer City of Memphis tonight when she struck a rock in the Ohio river and began sinking.

The steamer reached the Kentucky shore safely but was listing badly when the last person was removed. The boat was returning from Rose Island, a resort about 10 miles from here, to Paducah, Ky.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh Are Parents of Second Son Baby and Mother Unofficially Reported Doing Well After Birth at Morrow Home at Englewood, New Jersey.

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Aug. 16.—(AP)—The Lindberghs have another baby boy.

A second son was born to Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh at 6:30 p. m. today, five and one-half months after their first child was kidnapped and slain.

Despite the ordeal she sustained with fortitude the whole world admired, Anne Morrow Lindbergh was understood to be "doing nicely," and unconfirmed reports said the same about the baby.

Always insistent on the right of himself and his family to privacy in their personal affairs, Colonel Lindbergh did not make public from the Morrow home any details of his son's weight or appearance.

Mrs. Dwight Morrow, widow of the late senator, remained close to her husband's bedside. She returned from a summer trip to Europe less than two weeks ago, to be present at her second grandchild's birth.

At the Englewood home of health, it was said this afternoon the birth certificate was not expected to be filed for four or five days. There was a delay of that length after Charles Augustus Lindbergh was born June 22, 1930, before the birth was officially recorded. His name had not then been decided upon.

Though no announcement has been made about the new baby's name, friends were agreed in expecting it would be Dwight Morrow Lindbergh, in honor of his famous grandfather.

Mrs. Lindbergh's only brother also is named Dwight. Colonel Lindbergh was an only child, and his late father's name, like his own, was Charles A.

Dr. Edward Hawke, who attended Mrs. Lindbergh when the first baby

LINDBERGH PLEADS FOR "NORMAL" LIFE

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, in a statement tonight on the birth of his second son, said: "Mrs. Lindbergh and I have made our home in New Jersey. It is naturally our wish to continue to live there near our friends and interests. Obviously, however, it is impossible for us to subject the life of our second son to the publicity which we feel was in a large measure responsible for the death of our first."

"We feel that our children have a right to grow up normally with other children. Continued publicity will make this impossible. I am appealing to the press to permit our children to lead the lives of normal Americans."

SENIATORIAL RACE HOLDS SPOTLIGHT BEFORE SUBURBS

Near Debate at Stone Mountain Also Enlivens State Campaigns.

Georgia's senatorial race, which Tuesday saw Congressman Charles R. Crisp at Monroe and Governor Richard B. Russell at Ringgold and LaFayette, will shift to Atlanta today for the governor's appearance before a forum meeting of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and Elberton where the congressman will speak at 11 o'clock.

Tuesday saw the nearest threat to a debate between the two candidates, Eugene Talmadge, scheduled to speak at Stone Mountain, arrived there in a drizzling rain, and the congressman took the day off.

Whether any other candidates withdraw from the race or not, Democratic State Chairman Lawrence Camp said in Atlanta the day after August 22.

Former Governor Hardwick was speaking at Glenview, John N. Holder at Waycross and Abit Nix at Washington, D. C. Eugene took the day off. His friends here will meet at the Anley tonight to arrange for his city auditorium speech in Atlanta the day after August 22.

ATLANTIC FLYER FALLS 2,000 FEET BUT STILL LIVES

Physicians Give Russell Boardman Even Chance for Recovery After Crash in New England.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 16.—(UP)—Russell N. Boardman, speed flier and co-holder of the world's distance flight record, was critically injured today in a crash at Springfield airport, near which he had been making test flights in a new airplane which he expected would fly 300 miles per hour.

Physicians at Springfield hospital said Boardman had "an even chance for recovery" if it should develop that his skull was not fractured. X-ray photographs were being taken to determine the extent of his injuries. He was semi-conscious early tonight and his name was on the danger list.

Dr. Roderick McCauley, one of the attending physicians, said it was "unfathomable that anyone should fall 2,000 feet and live."

Boardman, who last year flew non-stop from New York to Istanbul, Turkey, with John Polanco, of Lynn, Mass., establishing a new distance flight record of 5,039 miles, crashed in the Junior Gee Bee Sportster which carried the late Lowell Bayles, of Springfield, when he set several cross-country records before he was killed in an spin and nosedive at Cleveland last year. It was not the same plane in which Boardman had been making his recent speed tests.

The Sportster nose-dived from an altitude of 2,000 feet above Springfield airport shortly after Boardman had taken off to fly to Bowles airport at Agawam, near by, where he intended to start today's tests in a other Gee Bee machine, a super-speeder. Yesterday he did 275 miles per hour in the speed plane and last Saturday approached a 300-mile speed, his objective.

He was to have gone aloft for a third test at Bowles airport this afternoon, in preparation for his scheduled participation in the national air races at Cleveland next month.

The Sportster climbed rapidly to a height of 2,000 feet, Boardman then circled the field, watched by scores of airport attaches and visitors. The ship went into a loop and Boardman rolled out of it. A few seconds later it went into a spin and nosedive.

It required several minutes for airport attaches to extricate the flier, imprisoned in the wreckage of the snug cockpit. Police ambulance took him to the hospital where Doctors McCauley and Car Schillinger took charge.

Five Points Robbery Reported to Police

An armed white bandit late Tuesday afternoon held up and robbed the Friendly Fire Shoe Store, 77 Peachtree street, taking $58.10 from the cash register after ordering the manager, A. H. Steinberg, into the rear of the store, according to police reports.

Steinberg told police that the bandit, apparently a Greek, came into the store, leaned on the counter, and when asked for his wishes, ordered the manager to "stick 'em up." The store is a block from Five Points.

World Jewish Congress To Be Held in 1934

GENEVA, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A world Jewish congress, to be convoked in the summer of 1934 for the purpose of devising means of combating the rising tide of anti-Semitism, was decided upon today at private discussions by leaders of the Jewish World Conference in session here.

Conditions were described as most acute in Germany, but bad everywhere, including the United States, where the expulsion of Jews from certain colleges and universities was especially resented.

A manifesto to Jewish people throughout the world, embodying a formal protest against persecution and anti-Semitism and calling upon them to sink their differences and unite in defense of their rights, will be issued by the conference, which concluded its general discussion today.

The trio who will face trial are Bernard McCoy, 38, Chicago, bricklayer; Broadus Faulkner, 32, a Kentucky negro, and John O. Olson, 44, carpenter of Valparaiso, Neb., and holder of the Distinguished Service Cross.

GROWERS CAN POOL COTTON PRODUCED WITH U. S. LOAN AID

Clarke Announces New Rule for Storing or Pooling to Prevent Glut of Early Market.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(AP)—As an aid to marketing their crop in an orderly way, southern farmers who received 1932 production loans from the agriculture department today were offered the privilege of storing cotton or placing it in co-operative pools.

All cotton stored or placed in an optional pool, must, however, be sold by March 1, 1933, and seasonal pool cotton by next May 1, to pay off the loans which become due on November 30. By taking advantage of these plans farmers can hold their crop for any possible rise in prices and at the same time prevent a glut on the market.

Henry S. Clarke, national director of crop production loans, said "it is hoped that these loans will be paid on or before their due date." Last year the department fixed a price of 8 cents a pound on cotton stored as collateral for loans.

In storing the crop in federal licensed warehouses farmers have the privilege of selling prior to March 1, but in any case must agree to sell at 80 per cent of the market price, less charges, fails to meet the amount of the loan. The same conditions apply to pooled cotton.

Clarke said the department would allow farmers the use of cotton seed to pay for picking, ginning, bagging and other expenses. When they sell and apply the proceeds on their loans and the cotton seed will not pay such costs, the borrowers may deduct four-fifths of 1 cent per pound of lint cotton in addition to the seed.

When it is placed in the co-operative, Clarke said, the co-operative will not be permitted to make its regular advances and apply them on loans unless the advances pay the loan in full, but if the cotton seed, not pay for picking and other expenses, the co-operative may advance four-fifths of 1 cent per pound of lint cotton in addition.

Throng Fills Keith's Georgia When Cooking School Opens

Following its opening session, which Tuesday packed the Keith Georgia theater to capacity, The Constitution's free cooking school was ready to open again at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, with Mrs. Kate B. Stafford, noted authority on cooking, directing the session. Sessions will be held Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Stafford demonstrated her knowledge of the technique of cooking at the opening session. Particularly was she interesting in showing how to make coffee both hot and iced. She used Gold Label coffee, which is furnished to the school by Rogers. This coffee is sold in bean form.

In the making of planked hamburger steak, Mrs. Stafford chose choice western meats furnished by A.P. stores, as are all the meats used in the school. Mrs. Stafford recommends western meat in all her lectures.

Many Prizes Given.

Thirty-six prizes were given away, and over 150 more will be awarded during the remaining three sessions.

Before the school opened the audience was delighted with a boys' fashion show sponsored by the Boys' Shop at Rich's, and a fall fashion show of the new styles in coats for women, sponsored by the Mirror at 76 Whitehall street.

The fashion shows are a daily attraction, and on Thursday morning Billy Beard, the minstrel, will be on the program, through the courtesy of

HIGHWAY BOARD PROVIDES START ON 24 PROJECTS

First Block of Federal Emergency Relief Fund
Used on Separate and Widely Scattered Improvements.

FIFTEEN BRIDGES ARE INCLUDED

Bremen-Villa Rica and Marietta-Canton Roads
Will Get New Pavement
Under Program.

Contracts for more than 100 miles of paved road and 16 bridges, totaling $2,147,000, were awarded Tuesday by the state highway board.

There were more than 250 bidders on the 24 projects awarded when the bids were opened early in the day, making it necessary for the board to adjourn from the highway building to the hall of the house of representatives to accommodate the crowd.

Tuesday's contracts were the first to be awarded out of money obtained from the federal government under the emergency relief act. All of the money for the projects comes out of this fund.

Under terms of the agreement, as set forth by the federal authorities, contractors must employ men out of work whose names appear on the lists of county relief committees with the preference to ex-convicts, men, those with families first.

Contractors also agreed to pay a minimum wage of 20 cents an hour for unskilled and 30 cents an hour for skilled labor.

The highway board has announced that the remaining 14 projects, totaling $5,000,000 in federal funds on hand and obtained through the emergency relief bill, will be let in contracts between now and the first of the year.

The bids were above the estimate of the state's highway engineers who had placed the letting at not more than $2,000,000.

Atlanta, East Point and Decatur probably will be among the first Georgia cities to participate in distribution of federal relief funds, it was disclosed Tuesday in Washington.

Although the federal government is now erecting a $2,975,000 postoffice building here, another $50,000 is allocated under the Garner-Wagner relief bill for repairs to government buildings.

East Point is slated to get $60,000 for construction of a postoffice, and Decatur is billed for another $60,000. Cairo also will get $65,000; Dublin $135,000; Gainesville $335,000; Valdosta $80,000 and Waycross $145,000.

A Gainesville delegation will urge immediate expenditure of the $335,000 for a federal building in that city today when it appears before the state departmental public buildings committee at Washington.

The 24 projects, 10 of which were reopened by the state highway board and amount of contract follow—7,580 miles of limberock surface pavement

COX, HARVEY LEAD SEPARATE PARTIES

Jobless-Liberty Convention Splits as Each Covets U. S. Presidency.

CREVE COEUR, Mo., Aug. 16.—(UP)—The joint convention of the jobless and the liberty party split in twain tonight, all because the Rev. Father James Cox and William H. (Coin) Harvey couldn't agree on who should be president of the United States.

Father Cox said he should be. Harvey said the honor belonged to him.

Thus, what was to have been a peaceful convention of two parties, will be two conventions, 100 yards from one another on the shores of mosquito-infested Creve Coeur lake. The conventions convene tomorrow.

Father Cox, leading a band of several hundred jobless men, arrived in his blue painted truck, from Pittsburgh. The 81-year-old Harvey demanded to know why he hadn't brought 1,000,000 men as he had promised. Father Cox explained that he brought the few he did because he "would be taking food out of the mouths of the jobless" if he brought more.

The priest called upon Harvey to support him for president.

"Would you turn me down because of my religion?" asked Father Cox.

Harvey jumped from his bed, pointed his finger at Father Cox and replied:

"You are asking me to step aside when the people by the millions are calling upon me to lead them; asking me to step aside after my lifelong work for suffering humanity. I am disgusted to think that I am sought to be shoved aside to let you go in as the party's nominee for president."

Harvey announced thereupon that

BAMA GOVERNOR ASKS INCOME TAX AND BONDS

Slashes in State Salaries
Also Advocated by Miller
To Balance Budget.

ROOSEVELT INVITED TO ADDRESS SESSION

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 16. (AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, democratic nominee, today was invited to address the extraordinary session of the Alabama legislature.

The lawmakers paused in opening their special session called to balance the state's budget to adopt a resolution calling upon the democratic standard-bearer to address them on any date he selects.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 16. (AP)—An income tax, a bond issue of $20,000,000 to retire the current deficit and cuts in salaries and appropriations were asked of the Alabama state legislature today by Governor R. M. Miller in his message which he read in person to the legislators shortly after the opening session convened.

Governor Miller stating that he would gladly accept a slash in his own salary, told the legislators "the financial condition of many of the citizens of the state makes it right in my opinion for the salaries of all public officials and employees, state, county and municipal to be reduced."

The chief executive told the legislators he was opposed to a sales tax which he termed a "consumers' tax." The consumer, Governor Miller said, "as a rule, is battling for bread, hunting for food, seeking clothes and thousands and tens of thousands of them are idle, hungry and begging for the necessities of life."

"So the conclusion should be reached that this $20,000,000 debt (the state's current deficit) must not be paid by a sales tax on all retail sales to be paid by the consumer."

Discussing the deficit and the state's financial problems, Governor Miller said, "to pay this debt and to secure revenue to aid in maintaining our schools, we must go to those who have the ability to pay, by framing and levying an income tax," adding that profits and income have never been taxed by Alabama in its 113 years of history.

He urged the legislature to submit to the voters a constitutional amendment authorizing an income tax, modeled after the federal income tax with the same schedule that existed in 1931, to pass an enabling act to place it in force for the current year if ratified by the voters in November.

Previous to convening of the session, Senator R. H. Powell, of Tuskegee, chairman of the senate rules committee, and Speaker A. H. Tunstall, chairman of the house rules committee, announced bills to cut the pay of

New Sacred Heart Pastor Is Here To Assume Duties

FATHER DAGNEAU.

FATHER McGRATH.

Father E. P. McGrath, former pastor of the Holy Name of Mary Church of Algiers, a suburb of New Orleans, arrived in Atlanta Tuesday afternoon to assume the pastorate of the Sacred Heart church. He will serve here under the supervision of Father P. H. Dagneau, S. M., president of Marist College, and superior of the Marist Fathers here.

Legislators and employees 25 per cent would be introduced at once. This would place the legislators on a basis of $6 per day.

RUSSELL COUNTY GROUP ATTACKS LAWMAKERS

SEALE, Ala., Aug. 16. (AP)—Dr. R. B. McCann, of Seale, secretary of a mass meeting of several hundred Russell county citizens here August 12, said today that a committee of five has been instructed to prepare impeachment charges against Senator C. G. Brown and Representatives Charles T. Clayton and George W. Wallace, members of the county's legislative delegation.

The authority given the committee was contained in a resolution adopted by 500 citizens attending the meeting, Dr. McCann said, which also requested an investigation by the state legislature of the qualifications of Senator Brown and Representatives Clayton and Wallace as members of the legislature.

COLONIAL FURNITURE IS POPULAR HERE

Colonial reproductions in maple and mahogany take first place in popularity among Georgia home-lovers, according to Paul Sillin, decorations expert of Sterch's, 118, 119 and 120 Whitehall street, S. W.

Cardinals of bedroom suites, and odd pieces such as beds in a number of authentic styles, dressers and vanities and chests of drawers sold out within a few days and it was necessary to reorder several additional cardinals for immediate delivery, so great has been the demand for colonial reproductions. These cars have just been unpacked and displays in great variety may be seen at Sterch's.

NEW GROUP IS FORMED TO HELP UNEMPLOYED

Newton Baker Chairman of Committee Including
Many Noted Names.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—The nation's idle took a new grip on hope for relief today with the announcement that 55 of the country's leaders had agreed to serve on a committee to give aid to the unemployed. Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, Secretary of Commerce Roy D. Chapin, Owen D. Young and Thomas W. Lamont are included in the group drafted to form the membership of the national citizens' committee for the welfare and relief mobilization of 1932. Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker is chairman.

One of the first aims of the committee of 55 will be to unite and reinforce local social service organizations, assisting them in readjusting their programs to fit the needs of their individual communities in addition to obtaining adequate funds to carry on their work.

"The task ahead of us is the greatest we have ever faced," said Chairman Baker. "Every social welfare agency must co-operate. . . . When we are through we must have saved the nation's welfare plan from destruction."

The committee will sponsor a conference in Washington on September 15, when community social service leaders will be invited to participate. President Hoover will open the conference at the White House.

SEVEN MEN ESCAPE JAIL IN TENNESSEE

COCKEVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 16. (AP)—Seven men dug their way to freedom through the brick wall of the Putnam county jail here today. A screw-driver was used in loosening the bricks, and blankets were tied together to form a rope for the men to lower themselves from the second floor opening. The men were held on theft and liquor charges. They have not been recaptured.

under the personal supervision of
noted home economist and lecturer

A RED-LETTER day in cooking is just around the corner. It's a day which will loom large in your memory for weeks afterward. For it marks the opening of The Constitution's annual FREE Cooking School—the "Happy Kitchen."

We have planned these programs for months—getting seats ready, making arrangements to get together the best foodstuffs and home appliances, ironing out all the detail problems which crop up in arranging a truly great and truly memorable home exposition such as the "Happy Kitchen" is to be.

A home economist who has talked before thousands of housewives, throughout the country, will be in direct charge of all the programs. She is noted for her practical knowledge of the art of cookery, the frills and furbelows as well as everyday roast beef and potatoes. The cooking school won't have a bit of formality in it—you can ask all the questions you want, and the home economist has a world of experience with which to answer them. You'll see all your friends and neighbors there, and we want you to come, too. We invite you to make this YOUR cooking school—and don't miss a single fascinating minute of it.

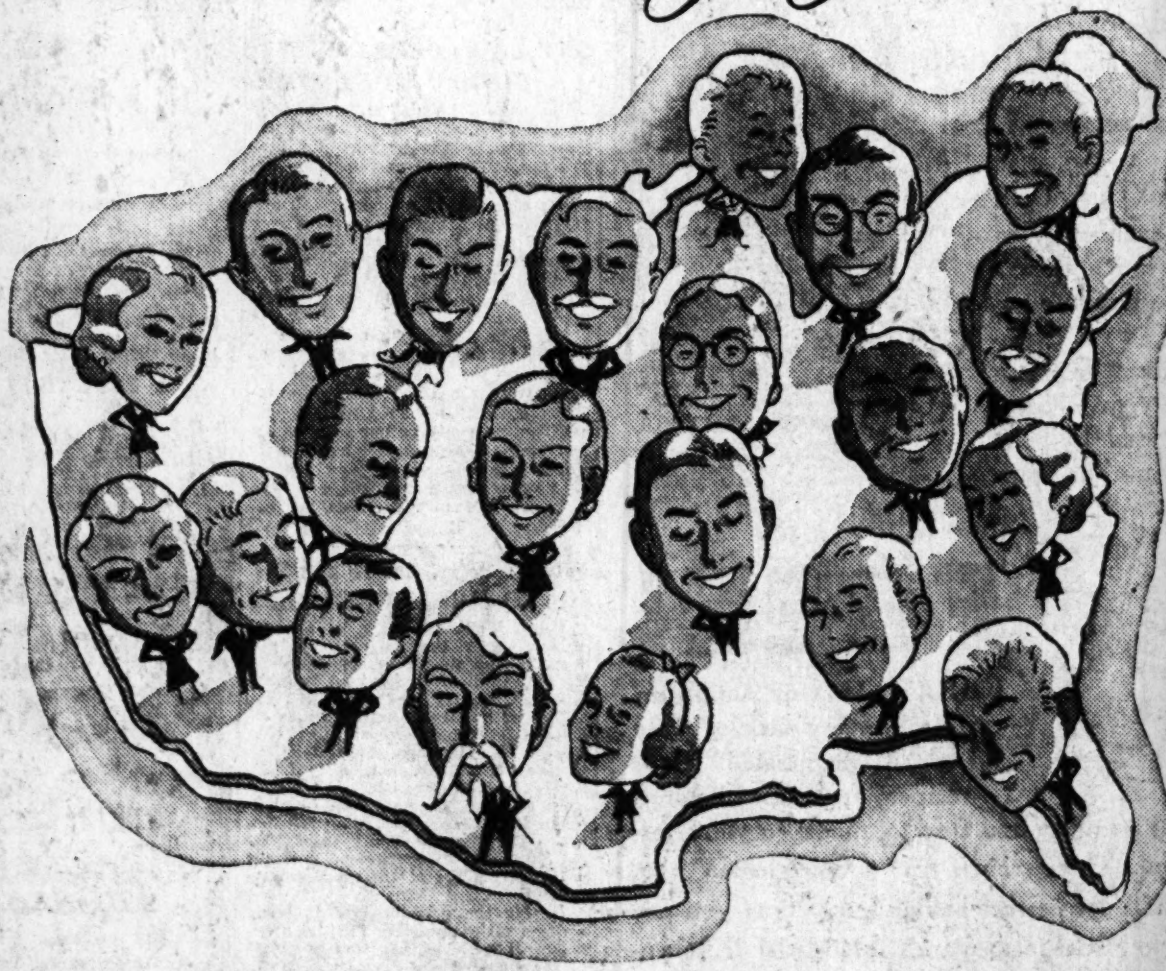

Remember—the doors open an hour before the Happy Kitchen gets under way.
Come early and bring paper and pencil!

TALMADGE HITS REORGANIZATION

Conflict of Authority and Other Bad Provisions Are Attacked.

STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga., Aug. 16.—Stone Mountain turned out a record crowd this afternoon to hear Eugene Talmadge speak. It was pouring rain when the hour for his speech arrived and the citizens of the town opened the high school auditorium, which is large and commodious, and it was announced that Talmadge would speak from the auditorium.

A large delegation from Gwinnett county came over and assured Talmadge of their support and requested him to speak in Gwinnett. Delegates were there from Rockdale, Jackson and other counties.

Talmadge was introduced by Hon.

J. D. McCurdy, city clerk of Stone Mountain.

Bitter on Reorganization.

Talmadge said: "My countrymen, you have heard a whole lot about reorganization in Georgia for the past three years. You are hearing about it today from the mountains to the sea."

"Have you ever looked up the meaning of the word reorganization in the dictionary? Look it up and you will find that the plain meaning of reorganization is just twist and change around. If you follow the meaning of the word in the dictionary you do not eliminate anything."

"I can reorganize 12 marbles on a table from now until midnight and still have 12 marbles on the table unless I break some of them and then I will have 15 or 16 left on the table."

"What Georgia needs is a man in the governor's chair and senators and representatives to back him up, who will wipe some of the marbles off the table and call it that."

"The population of Georgia is decreasing. Our land is going begging. A day's work in the sun is written in red. While this is going on the midnight legislation got into the reorganization bill. I personally know that it has created three departments of agriculture in the state capital (if the judgment of the lower court is correct). These three departments of agriculture were created by after midnight legislation—Sunday morning."

"I do not believe that this is the spirit and intention of the reorganization bill.

The good points in the reorganization bill will be preserved. The conflict of authority or duplication of effort will be eliminated. (If you will send senators and representatives to the state capital to back me up.)

"Of course, the strongest proponents and friends of the reorganization bill know that they could not in 90 days perfect a bill reorganizing our state government which required 130 years to develop."

TALMADGE SAYS HIS RECORD DISAVOWS EXTRAVAGANCE

In a statement from Atlanta Tuesday night, in answering charges of extravagance directed at his administration as commissioner of agriculture, Eugene Talmadge, candidate for governor, said that he had returned to the state treasurer over $100,000 appropriated to his department and that he was the only commissioner who had ever returned any of the money appropriated.

"In the administration of the office of commissioner of agriculture, my opponents claim I have been extravagant. Let us see what this record is. In 1923 when I was inducted into office the expenses of this department was $335,000. For the present year the expenses will not exceed $300,000. The saving to the taxpayers of nearly 50 per cent. Yet the work done by this department will be nearly twice that accomplished in 1923."

Savings Are Cited.

"When I was inducted into office in 1923 there were 6,408 samples of fertilizer examined at a total cost of $87,440.87. This was a cost per sample of $13.49. In 1930 there were 13,078 samples examined at a total cost of $105,361.04. This was a cost per sample of $8.05."

"In 1928 there were 15,844 samples examined in the food, feed and drug inspections at a total cost of $83,094.32. This was a cost per sample of $5.24. In 1930 there were 20,859 samples examined at a total cost of $105,361.04. This was a cost per sample of $5.05."

"In my five and a half years as commissioner of agriculture I have paid back into the state treasury over $110,000 that was appropriated to the department of agriculture by the legislature. I could have spent every dollar of this money. I am the only commissioner who ever returned any of the appropriation."

Efforts for Farmers.

"The efforts that I have always made as commissioner of agriculture to benefit the farming classes of Georgia are known to all men throughout the state. As commissioner my chief duty was to the farmers and my chief efforts were, therefore, in their behalf. As a candidate for governor I declare again my earnest desire to exercise the full powers of the governor's office to continue what I have always done in behalf of the farmers of this state, but I also declare that as governor I will also declare that I will not let the people of Georgia and not limit my efforts to any particular class."

"We must always remember that the interests of every group are dependent on the welfare of the state as a whole. You cannot injure business as a whole."

"No radical legislation will be approved by me as governor of Georgia which would harass or hamstring the legitimate business of this state. No legitimate business shall be run out of Georgia by unfair legislation or oppressive taxes. Business, labor and agriculture—no hand in hand. One cannot prosper without the other."

RUSSELL EXPLAINS ACTION OF FATHER

Sister Has Small Interest in Railway, Governor Declares.

LAFAYETTE, Ga., Aug. 16.—In speaking to the voters of Walker and surrounding counties at the courthouse here today, Governor Russell revealed why his father, Chief Justice Richard B. Russell, disqualified himself in the Georgia supreme court when a Georgia Power Company case is under consideration.

He also discussed in plain terms the activities of the jute trust in Georgia, and the influence of legislation in Washington.

"When he put out the insinuation that my father owned stock in the Georgia Power Company, Mr. Crisp knew very well that he was guilty of a misrepresentation, because all the records of the power company, including its stock books, are at his disposal in his campaign against me," Governor Russell said. "An aged aunt of mine owned five shares of stock in the old Georgia Railway & Electric Company and when she died she willed this stock to my younger sister. Under the law prohibiting a judge from sitting in a case involving a company in which even a distant cousin owns stock, my father, along with four other members of the supreme court, has disqualified himself from sitting in cases affecting the Georgia Power Company, successor to the Georgia Railway & Electric Company."

"I wish my hearers would all read what the democratic congressman from our sister state said and of Mr. Crisp on the floor of our national congress when pleading with him in behalf of the cotton-growing south."

"There is a man named Ludlum who invested $50,000,000 in the manufacture of jute and made $20,000,000 out of it last year. He pays his laborers 10 cents per day. There are a lot of little Ludlums around and they are bitterly opposing me in this race."

Children Hurt.

FINLEY, Tenn., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Six Heloise school children were injured yesterday by lightning struck a tree under which they had sought shelter from a rain storm. The condition of one, Laura Belle Joslin, 15, was reported critical.

Additional Sets of Answers Will Be Allowed in Songame

$1,800 in Cash Prizes To Go to Readers Who Turn in Most Correct Answers; Sets Need Not Be "Dolled Up."

BY THE SONGAME EDITOR.

"If at first you don't succeed, try again." Thus runs an old adage that followers of the Songame should heed, if they are doubtful about any of their answers. Under the liberal rules, readers may submit more than one complete set of pictures and answers, changing their answers on second or additional sets. This affords extra opportunities for capturing the first prize of $1,000, or one of the other 39 prizes.

Those who decide to turn in several sets of pictures and answers may easily obtain duplicate pictures, either by calling at The Constitution or by mail. Pictures from No. 1 to No. 15, reprinted with a helpful list of song titles, are free, while pictures from No. 16 up to date are obtainable at the regular price of the individual issues of The Constitution, that is, 5 cents apiece. Any eight pictures would cost 30 cents, or 40 pictures (one half the series) would be $1.25.

In addition to being useful to players who want to get up extra sets, the reprinted pictures will be handy for readers who have lost, destroyed or misplaced any of their series. The reprints, because of the quality of paper on which they are printed, will take pen-and-ink without blurring. Players who order by mail should also include 2 cents extra to cover postage.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Q.—At the end of the Songame, will all of the correct answers be published?—Mrs. H. M. K., Atlanta.

A.—Yes.

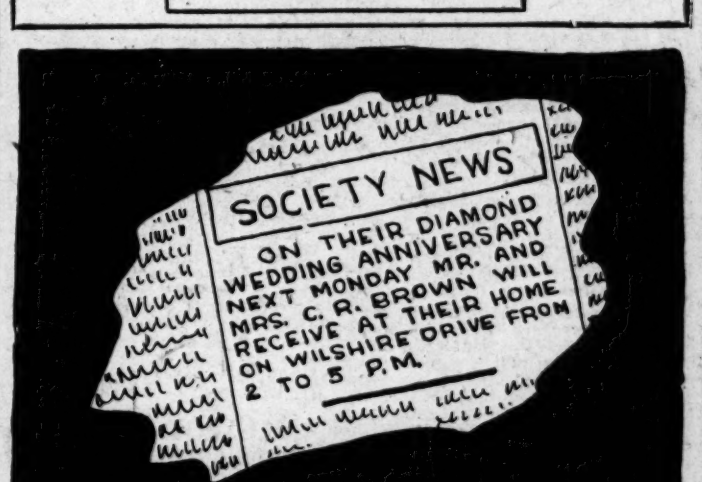

Thorough Checking.

Q.—Will all of the sets that are turned in be checked, or just some of them that are attractively gotten up?—D. J. B., Athens, Ga.

A.—Every answer in every set submitted by Songame players will be carefully checked, under the supervision of competent judges. The prizes will go to those who have the greatest number of correct answers.

Cheer Up and Tune in the SONGAME

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

The song title answer is:

No. 58

Name

Street Address, Box or Rural Route No.

City State

Don't let this picture "stump" you. If you can't recall the title answer that fits it, or any of the other pictures of the series, be sure to obtain a copy of the valuable and helpful list of songs offered free to Constitution readers. A copy of this interesting list may be had by calling at the circulation department, or by mail for a 2-cent stamp.

INSTRUCTIONS:

$1,800 in cash will be awarded Songame followers who find the most correct song title answers for the 80 pictures, which will be published serially in The Constitution. The first prize is $1,000; the second, $400; the third, $100; the fourth, $50; and the fifth, $25. There are ten prizes of $10 each, and twenty-five prizes of $5 each.

STATE ECONOMY IS MAJOR ISSUE, KELLEY ASSERTS

CEDARTOWN, Ga., Aug. 16.—"The issue in this campaign is one of clean government against corrupt government. The people are looking for a man who can and will drive out all graft, corruption and extravagance from state affairs," declared John I. Kelley, candidate for governor, addressing citizens of Polk and several neighboring counties here today.

"On account of the vigorous fight I have been making this year against Eugene Talmadge with his record of corruption and against the machine which he has built up at public expense, reports from every section of the state indicate a widespread approval of my fight and that the voters are turning to my candidacy as the one man who has the courage and determination to rid our state of the influence of Mr. Talmadge and his machine."

"I have never seen a so-called boom so completely punctured as that of Eugene Talmadge. Everywhere he speaks I am circulating in the crowd eleven questions for him to answer in explanation of his conduct as a public official. These questions are so damaging that Mr. Talmadge has not the moral courage to even attempt to answer or explain them although his hearers demand that he do so. Any man who has a record which he cannot defend and which he refers to as 'trash' cannot expect the voters of Georgia to take seriously."

ATHLETE'S FOOT Germs No Kill - - - No Cost

Ringworm germs, the cause of Athlete's Foot, dig in before they start the trouble. Then only do you see and feel the symptoms—itching, redness, soreness etc. And then no surface germicide can reach them. That's why germicides in general fail to end this trouble. Countless people are thus disappointed.

"RING-ROUT" is different. It first removes the outer skin, in a gentle way, with no harm to the real skin. Thus it gets down where the germs lie, then kills them instantly. High authorities certify to that.

Results are so sure that we guarantee them. The germs, however deep, are killed, also we return your money.

If other ways have failed with you, come to us for "RING-ROUT" with our warrant. It offers the right method for ending this very common and contagious trouble.

Concert Pianist Praises Songame

MISS DOROTHY J. WALDMAN.

"Just a word of appreciation of what The Constitution is doing for us southerners in offering Songame," writes Miss Dorothy J. Waldman, 739 Park drive, N. E., one of Atlanta's most youthful and talented concert pianists. "Besides being a most diverting and pleasant pastime," she continues, "The Songame is a remarkable way of acquiring familiarity with a wonderful group of songs dear to the hearts of music lovers everywhere, or refreshing one's acquaintance with these songs. From an educational standpoint, I think the Songame is splendid, and am sure musicians of high standing recognize its merits. The book, 'Songs We All Love' is one of the best and most comprehensive compilations of songs I've ever seen. The Songame is just another fine example of The Constitution's usefulness to Atlanta and this section."

C. of C. Will Hear Gov. Russell Today

Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. will make a non-political address on the subject, "Economy in Government," before the forum luncheon of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce at 12:30 o'clock today.

Though only 250 persons may be served in hall 2, where the luncheon will be, Chamber of Commerce officials said that friends of the governor invited to get luncheon tickets are unable to hear the address. A crowd of 350, Roy LeCraw, president, said is expected.

Congressman Charles R. Crisp, Governor Russell's opponent for the United States senate, addressed the junior Chamber of Commerce a few weeks ago.

22 Feared Lost.

MARSEILLES, France, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Twenty-two men are feared to have drowned in the reported sinking of a fast dispatch boat in the air mail service to South America on Saturday. The vessel was en route from Natal, Brazil, to Dakar, Senegal, when she ran into a storm.

RUSSELL LEADING, MANAGER CLAIMS

Statement of Scarlett Attacks Activities of Crisp Helmsmen.

Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. "is far in the lead and is continuing to gain ground every day," Frank M. Scarlett, his campaign manager, said in a statement issued from his Ansley hotel headquarters Tuesday, Scarlett said.

"Campaign headquarters for Governor Russell have been opened today at Rooms 708-10 at the Ansley hotel. "Though headquarters are not opened until rather late in the campaign, my review of the correspondence from every section of the state which has already been received convinces me that Governor Russell is far in the lead and is continuing to gain ground every day."

"It is a real pleasure for me to spend the coming month working in Governor Russell's behalf. I appreciate the loyal offers of assistance made by others of Governor Russell's friends and will be delighted to hear from his friends all over Georgia. I feel that I am rendering a real public service by working to the limit of my ability for his election as United States senator."

"The almost daily statements which have been issued by those handling Mr. Crisp's campaign have utterly amazed me. No man has ever been assailed as bitterly and as unjustly with personal abuse and vituperation as Governor Russell has been by the daily statements fired by those who are handling and directing Mr. Crisp's campaign. The bitterness of these statements and the low plane upon which they are pitched have been resented by people in every county of Georgia who know Governor Russell personally. Thousands refer to him affectionately as Dick Russell, and they resent the many gross misrepresentations and the personal abuse that has been heaped upon him by Mr. Crisp's campaign handlers."

"Governor Russell needs no defense at my hands, and is amply able to take care of himself on the stump without his friends at his headquarters engaging in a mud battle. I have never been connected with a statewide campaign until I gladly accepted the request that I help elect the governor to the senate, and I shall not resort to the tactics that have been employed by Mr. Crisp's handlers, to the thorough disgust of all the thinking people of Georgia. I know that Governor Russell would not approve of such mud slinging and personalities if I were inclined to indulge therein."

TWO DRY LEADERS AGAIN SEEK BORAH FOR DRY TICKET

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 16.—(P)—Two national prohibition leaders again have asked Senator William E. Borah to seek the presidency as head of a prohibition ticket, and the Idaho statesman was expected to make his decision today.

of the Board of Temperance and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal church, and Leigh Colvin, national chairman of the prohibition party which recently tendered the nomination to Borah, conferred with the senator last night and renewed their plea. Should Senator Borah accept the proposal, Dr. Wilson said, he would carry 10 southern states in the election and enough central western and eastern states to be elected. The southern states he named were North and South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Alabama. "He would win more states in the south than did Hoover," he said. As his home is Boise, Idaho, Senator Borah refused to comment.

HOOPER GETS 15 TROUT IN DAY OF FISHING

CRISFIELD, Md., Aug. 16.—(P)—Making a full day of it around some of Chesapeake bay's best known fishing grounds, President Hoover today hauled in 15 trout, one of them a three-footer.

With the chief executive as he fished from a deck of the commerce department inspection boat Sequoia and again from a small speedboat was John Crockett, tall, grizzled fisherman of Tangier Island, who was asked to assist the president in finding the best fishing spots.

The president was up long before breakfast for his first indulgence in his favorite recreation. His guests were still asleep, but three of them—Secretary Hurley, Clarence M. Woolley, president of the American Radiator Company, and Will Irwin, the author, and Mr. Hoover's college mate, later went on a tour of quaint Tangier with Crockett as their guide.

3 HELD AS WIRELESS IS FOUND IN SWAMP

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 16.—(P)—An elaborate wireless sending and receiving set was found in a swamp near here today by police, who expressed belief the set was used to direct rum-running operations.

Three men were arrested. They denied connection with the set or a code book found in their possession with entries indicating liquor movement. The men said they were on a fishing trip.

The three gave names of Charles Brown, Pensacola, Fla.; Charles S. Reynolds, of Virginia, and Paul Gadsden, a negro, of Beaufort. All were held for further investigation.

BIRMINGHAM WITNESS GIVEN POLICE GUARD

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 16.—(P)—A personal body guard late today was ordered for Mrs. Ada Lance, principal state witness against R. A. Bridges, charged with murder in the bombing of the Pure Milk Company plant here last summer, after two apparent attempts on her life within 24 hours.

Mrs. Lance last night reported to police, in suburban Ensley, she was fired on from an automobile which she eluded after the driver had attempted to crowd her into a curb, and

EARLY RELIEF SEEN FOR HOME OWNERS

Fort Seeks To Cut Red Tape
in Way of Federal Aid Group.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(UP)—The Home Loan Bank board set out today to slash its way through red tape and bring swift relief to the small home owner, staggering under the burden of his mortgages.

Chairman Franklin W. Fort, of the board, in his first formal enunciation of policy, made it clear that he and his colleagues hold as their ideal the rescuing of the man whose property is deteriorating because he has no money for repairs and cannot raise funds because banks have restricted loans in order to keep cash on hand.

He explained the technical set-up of the board, pointing out that all the facilities of building and loan associations, insurance companies and savings banks would co-operate in the work.

As an indication of the plight of many home owners, Fort cited letters which have reached his desk from all parts of the country since President Hoover appointed him to the chairmanship of the board.

"Many of them," he said, "are so pathetic in their appeal for assistance as to make it almost impossible to do a day's work after reading them."

today she reported a second shot was fired at her.

Milton McDuff, chief of the bureau of identification, who is conducting the investigation of the attempts on Mrs. Lance's life, detailed a special body guard for the woman.

German Scientists Claim Success In Efforts To Disintegrate Atoms

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—(UP)—Sledgehammer voltages loosed by discharging the entire capacity of electrical energy generated at the big power plant of the German General Electric Company have smashed atoms, it was disclosed today, at a rate at which the usual devices no longer suffice to measure the wreckage.

This was revealed by company officials who announced proudly that the experiments of its engineers, Fritz Lange and Arno Bransch, had been crowned with success which surpasses even the efforts of the Englishmen, Walton and Cockcroft.

The greatest difficulty was encountered in developing a vacuum tube capable of withstanding the terrific force. Alpha particles to be shot at the atoms were produced in a vacuum discharging tube 240 meters long, while the velocity of the cathode rays was increased to a range of 30 meters in an amplifying tube.

The X-rays were so intense that they easily pierced a lead pipe 20 centimeters thick.

Following the suggestion of the American physicist, Coolidge, tubes were linked one behind the other, whereupon 5,000,000 volts, charging and accelerating the particles to 1,000,000 volts was released. It was said that atoms of lighter elements, like lithium, were demolished by the million.

The engineers have dismantled their apparatus and are now building another capable of generating 7,000,000 volts to smash heavier elements.

AERIAL SMOKE BOMB HITS BROOKLYN HOME

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(P)—A smoke bomb, said by police to have been dropped from a naval reserve training plane from Floyd Bennett field, dropped through the roof of a rear porch of a two-story frame dwelling in the outskirts of Brooklyn today.

A 14-inch hole was ripped through the roof and the porch caught fire, but firemen extinguished the flames before much damage resulted.

PONTIAC
Chief of Values
SIXES and V-EIGHTS

In speaking to her audience at The Constitution's Cooking School being held at Keith's Georgia Theater, Mrs. Stafford, lecturer and director of the sessions, referred to the New Pontiac Sixes and V-Eights as the ideal cars for women.

Naturally, Pontiac, with its style, beauty of design, ease of operation, and all modern driving and riding features, can truthfully be termed the most satisfactory woman's car built.

The Pontiac has brought every important development of the year to the low-price field. See the Pontiac on display in the lobby of Keith's Georgia Theater—then phone us for a demonstration. Drive it yourself and the car will prove to you why Pontiac is the Chief of Values for 1932.

SAFETY FIRST

NO TABLETS ARE GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN WITHOUT THIS CROSS

The public should be prudent in seeking relief from pain. Take nothing which does not have the approval of the medical profession.

You can always get Bayer Aspirin. It will never do you any harm, and almost always brings the desired relief. But remember that the high medical endorsement given Bayer Aspirin does not apply to all tablets for the relief of pain.

The doctor is careful to specify Bayer Aspirin for these important reasons:

There are no injurious ingredients in genuine Bayer Aspirin. No coarse particles to irritate throat or stomach. Nothing to upset the system or injure any organ. Not even any disagreeable taste, or any odor. The Bayer process of manufacture insures a pure, uniform product.

And to the absolute safety of the tablet stamped Bayer, add speed. It dissolves so rapidly you get the quickest relief from your headache, cold, neuralgia, neuritis, or other pain.

INSTALLMENT XII.

"You're sorry for me! You and who else? Save your sorrow for yourself. You'll need it. And that truth stuff—it's too bad you didn't do more practicing and less preaching. It's too bad you didn't tell the cops who drove—lock-out-of—that—window—Lee's shaking finger pointed to the dark pile of masonry at the water's edge.

Tony leaped to pull back the accusing finger. Strength had come to her. "Stop it!" she commanded. "Stop it this minute. You're lying. You know I had nothing to do with what happened—over there. Tom Stewart is nothing to me. Jock Selden—I despised him. God will punish you—the law will punish you."

Lee threw back her head. Her hysterical laughter filled the room, seeped out into the corridors. "Punish! God and the law! After Jock? That is funny."

Outside, in the waiting room, Tony thought it was ridiculous not to be able to control knees and wrists and elbows.

"Don't let what the Moran woman said upset you," Quinlan said. "You know her name?"

"Then why did you bring me here?"

"We want to find out what happened to send young Selden out of that window."

"But it's cruel—it's cruel to me. I don't know what sent him out—it's cruel to her—she loved him—"

"Law is law. It never tended to be a feather bed."

On the way in on the train, Tony turned to Quinlan.

"It didn't do any good, my facing Lee," she said. "It only made her harder and more bitter. She still insists she's Antoinette Brookes."

"Sure I know. She's another one of 'em. Born to get even."

"You heard what she said?"

"I heard. We had it all fixed. She was talking onto a record."

"She knew. That's why she changed so suddenly, and turned over the chair. She was looking for the wires."

"Right. But they didn't happen to be in the wires under chairs. Outside of that, she was a little late. She let loose the motive for using your name. She spilled that she'd known you for some time, after giving me the office she's never seen you. I don't want to be unduly curious. Miss Brookes, but her kind—how did you ever come to hook up with her?"

Tony said defensively. "You can't judge a person by how they look, what they say and do, when they are in the trouble Lee's in."

"That's the time you can judge 'em," Quinlan rumbled. "How they stand up. How they take it on the chin. Anyone can put on the lugs when the ship ain't rocking."

Silence. The miles were unrolling. Yellow haze of the city hung like a canopy low in the sky.

"Mr. Quinlan," Tony laid her hand on the dark sleeve, next to her. "You don't think Lee did anything to make Jock Selden jump out of the window?"

"No, she didn't do anything. Not anything she knew about. She'd have jumped out herself first. He was a bad egg and she happened to be on hand when he cracked. How a wise one as a child felt her stripes still you never can tell. The wiser they come the harder they fall. Who's this Adam Leonard she was squawking about?"

"Do you have to know?"

"Don't have to, but he's on the record. If he's regular, maybe we could keep Lee from doing things."

"He is—regular. He's not a young man, and he's married. At least he was married. He's getting a divorce. I think he expects to marry Lee Moran."

"Marry that one? He's an optimist. Maybe we'd better let him stay on the record where he can have his trouble and get over it in a hurry."

"I'm afraid it would finish him. You see—he really loves her. He's been unhappy for along time. Then Lee came along. She offered him youth and dancing and frolic—all the things he hadn't known. He thinks of her as a child into doing things—like going to Hawaii. Beach—by scheming associates. He can't see any had in her. It's wonderful—to love like that."

"And the other one she was raving about—Stewart's name was—wasn't he the one who came in the club yesterday and advised counsel?"

"Yes."

"He's in love with her, too?"

"Yes."

"The deuce he is! Say that girl ought to be in a merry-go-round."

Tony opened the drawers of her bureau and decided that, after all, there was compensation in having only those articles de toilette which were absolutely necessary. Packing would be a comparatively simple task. She would pack the small things first for her immediate needs in her leather hat box and her small handbag. Meantime she would have her small trunk brought up to the basement. She sat down on the floor and opened the lowest drawer. Suddenly her eyes brimmed with tears. She was going to miss this haven that she had come to regard as home. Miss the sun coming in at the window in the morning, the cretonnes that were the color of sunshine, the neat little day bed that was a cozy corner with pillows when it was not a couch of dreams. Here she had felt secure. The gargantuan city that thrummed and pulsated about her had been the whole of a splendid caravan moving swiftly up a mighty inclined plane. And she had been a part of that caravan. The city continued to thrum and to pulse, the caravan kept to its steady rush, but she was no longer a part of its splendor. She had been ejected, violently. Left to gather herself up as best she could, bruised and disheartened.

The police would find a way to make Lee "come through clean" as Quinlan expressed it. But the damage was already done. Explanations never explained anything. Antoinette Brookes would always be "that girl who was mixed up in the Selden case; you know, the young fellow who killed himself." She, Tony, had lost the respect of the only man whose love could have meant the happiness that passed understanding. She could never have Tom Stewart's love, since it was already given, but she would have found whatever happiness was left to her in the thought that when he remembered her at all, it would be with kindness and with respect. If only she could have explained that the car

DOUG DAVIS TO ENTER NATIONAL AIR RACES

Doug Davis, crack Atlanta flyer who walked away with two chief prizes in the 1929 national air races, left Atlanta Tuesday for Washington, where he will enter the Atlantic wing of the Cord Cup race in connection with the air races to be held at Cleveland, on August 20.

Meanwhile other Candler field pilots were working out in preparation for tries at various honors in America's greatest air meet. The Cord race will carry a total of $20,000 in prize money.

Other Atlanta pilots and air enthusiasts planning to attend the races are George Shearer, James T. Williams, Beeler Blevins, James A. Perry Jr., R. Frank Shaw, Gus Learner and others.

Another Georgia flyer, W. F. Cummings, of Donaldsonville, has entered the Atlantic wing of the Cord race.

SITE FOR NEW SCHOOL ACQUIRED BY COUNTY

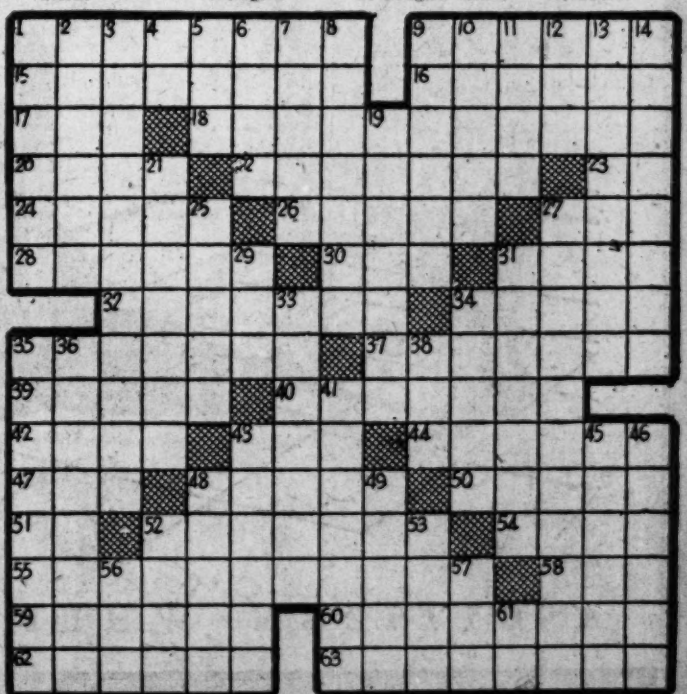

The Fulton county board of education Tuesday completed a deal for a site for the new West Haven school, Superintendent Jere A. Wells announced. The site is on the Gordon road, two miles beyond the West View cemetery.

Mr. Wells said the site was acquired for $1,000 and the present school property. The county is to build a new $12,500 building on the site. Burge and Stevens will be the architects.

The Moncrief Furnace Company was awarded the heating contract for a new annex to the Humphries school. The amount of the bid was $1,145. The board will award a contract next Tuesday for the new Campbell High school to be erected at Fairburn.

DEKALB CUTS TAX AND REDUCES DEBT

County Commissioner Reports New Rate of $1.40 Per $100 for 1932.

Economies which have reduced DeKalb county's outstanding indebtedness from $661,000 at the end of 1930 to $193,000 as of June 30 of this year have enabled County Commissioner C. A. Matthews to cut the 1932 tax rate by 25 cents. Matthews announced Tuesday. This represents a slash of 35 cents from the 1930 rate, which was $1.75. The 1932 rate will be $1.40 per $100, including the special school tax of 10 cents.

DeKalb indebtedness will be reduced to a minimum by the end of this year, in spite of a $1,500,000 loss in taxable values for 1932, the 1932 digest being $31,848,000 as compared with a 1931 digest of $33,378,800. Matthews said. Unpaid taxes in the amount of more than $100,000 will apply to further cut the county warrant debt.

Matthews eliminated a large number of unnecessary expenses and saved more than $1,000 a day in county op-

Governor of California Backs State Bonus Move

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 16.—(AP) Governor James Rolph Jr. suggested here today before the state convention of the American Legion that California "assume the obligation of the federal government and pay to California war veterans their bonus."

"I do not know how many Californians are eligible to receive the bonus, but it might be well to have the Legion's financial secretary find out how many are eligible and how much they have coming to them," the governor said.

"Then we could bond California for that amount, take an assignment from the federal government of the debt and pay it off."

The proposal was received with loud acclaim by the Legionnaires.

creation as compared with 1930 and previous years, it was said.

In spite of the lower tax and reduction in debt, Matthews this year has found means of carrying on important road-paving projects without increasing the county's expenses. He began work Tuesday on the Decatur Camp Gordon highway, six miles, which will be paved within 60 days. Work on the mile from the end of the present paving on Candler street to WSB's new transmitter station began last week. The East Atlanta-Panthersville road, five miles, and a mile extension of North Decatur road from Briarcliff to Highland have been paved this year. Matthews also has established a modern convict camp, and has remodeled the basement floor of the courthouse.

Insurance the Only Protection Against Reckless Automobilist

Don't depend on the courts to protect you against recklessness and speeding and carelessness. How often do you see in the newspapers accounts of how drivers run down and kill or maim their victims, and even though they are indicted it does the victim no good financially. Quite frequently they carry no liability insurance, and there is no chance of making anything out of them; so the victim loses all the way round unless he is insured.

You should protect yourself and family against just this kind of accident as well as many others. Protect your own prosperity against abrupt halt of income and safeguard the safety of your wife and children with insurance!

Cheapest and most efficient on record is the offer of The Constitution to you and all its readers of the famous $10,000 travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago, an old and reliable company which has already paid more than $150,000 on claims of Constitution policy holders.

The price is only a small registration fee of $1 per year—just about 2 cents a week. The policy provides for payment of sums of money in advance of $10,000 in case of death resulting from certain specific accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from the accidents set forth in the policy.

A wreck of trains, a crash of automobiles, the on-rushing wheels of a speeding car, a burning building, may have you dead or maimed today. Don't take chances! Don't delay!

This $10,000 travel and $1,000 auto and pedestrian accident policy is issued only to subscribers of the daily and Sunday Constitution and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 60 at a small registration fee of $1 per policy per year, open to both old and new subscribers.

You who are now taking the daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for it through a carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, or through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly, or otherwise, are a subscriber and are eligible. Those taking the daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery, are eligible by paying $1 registration fee per policy above the subscription price.

Subscribers living in Atlanta and suburbs finding it inconvenient to pay the $1 registration fee in advance can pay 20 cents registration fee with the application and 20 cents per week for five consecutive weeks thereafter in addition to the subscription price.

In sending an application for insurance, the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and identify himself as a subscriber of the Constitution. The full Christian name must be given and relation to the insured.

RUSSIA IS SNAG IN EMPIRE PARLEY

Canada Demands Britain Protect Dominion Goods From Soviet Dumping.

By FRANK I. WELLES.

OTTAWA, Ontario, Aug. 16.—(AP) If Canada can get ample assurances from Great Britain that dominion products will be safeguarded against Russian dumping in British markets, a plenary session of the imperial economic conference will be held Thursday in an atmosphere of confidence that the empire has moved toward the greatest trading unit the world ever has known.

When the Canadian cabinet went into session today it was understood Britain and the dominions would sign some sort of agreement, even if it were nothing more than an exchange of felicitations.

On the strength of a suggestion by Neville Chamberlain, British chancellor of the exchequer, that in one form or another the United Kingdom would guarantee Canada equal footing with Russia, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett widened his offer of preferences to Britain and the dominions. Since then, however, Mr. Chamberlain has been unable to obtain the unanimous backing of his own delegation.

Viscount Halifax, secretary for war, and Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, colonial secretary, are understood to be siding with the chancellor of the exchequer, but Stanley Baldwin, chief of the delegation, and J. H. Thomas, dominions secretary, are represented as arguing Britain cannot sacrifice her trade with Russia.

It was said that in trans-Atlantic telephone conversations Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald also has declared against jeopardizing economic relations with the soviet government. Moscow, it is understood, has refused London that Russian purchases in the United Kingdom next year will be in the neighborhood of $150,000,000.

Canada is understood to have withdrawn her demand for an absolute embargo on Russian goods by Britain, but she is insisting that the British guarantee that when a cargo of Canadian produce reaches British waters it will not be undersold by a similar cargo from Russia.

'Sonny' Whitney Named Democratic Candidate

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP) Cornelius Vanderbilt (Sonny) Whitney, son of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and grandson of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, has been designated democratic candidate for congress from the first congressional district, Philip N. Krug, democratic chairman of Nassau county, announced today.

Whitney will oppose Robert L. Bacon, republican congressman from that district since 1923. Bacon is the son of the late Robert Low Bacon, former ambassador to France, and is a close friend of Whitney.

The first district comprises Suffolk, Nassau and part of Queens county. Both candidates are from Westbury, Long Island.

Efficiency Trophy Again Is Won By Atlanta Naval Reservists

Atlanta battalion, of the United States naval reserve, the only unit of its kind in the country located inland, for the second consecutive year has won the national efficiency trophy, according to announcement Tuesday by Lieutenant Harry F. Dobbs, commander of the naval group. The trophy was won last year by the Atlanta seamen.

Presentation of the trophy emblem, a bronze plaque, will be made soon by Admiral J. J. Rabie, of Charleston, S. C., commanding the sixth naval reserve district which includes Atlanta. In addition to the announcement that his group won the title of finest reserve sailors in the country, notification was given that a personal letter will be mailed the lieutenant by Secretary of the Navy.

Burglary Foiled.

A hurried garden scythe Tuesday afternoon stopped the flight of J. V. Murray, 12, negro, after an alleged attempt to break into an apartment at 468 Boulevard, according to police. Tom Brown, janitor, told officers he saw the boy trying to break in. Treated at Grady hospital for a cut on the leg, the boy was held for juvenile authorities.

Famous Scientist Will Study 'Mummified' Pair at Indian Springs

Shortly after an Atlanta scientist Tuesday branded as a fake the so-called mummified bodies of a woman and child in Indian Springs, Ga., reports were current there that a nationally known scientist was on his way from an eastern city to make an exhaustive investigation of the figures.

The scientist was expected to arrive at any hour and immediately begin tests to determine if the forms ever were human beings.

Meanwhile crowds continued to pour into Indian Springs from various sections and to pay 10 cents each for the privilege of viewing the "mummy" in a glass case. L. J. Gregory, owner, and upon whose small farm the objects were found, would not permit close inspection pending the arrival of the scientist.

In a statement Tuesday, P. W. Fattig, curator of the Emory University museum, and an acknowledged authority on mummies, branded as "gross humbuggery of the public" the display at Indian Springs. He added that he was not permitted to make a satisfactory examination of the objects and was not permitted to get within several feet of the glass case.

The statement of Dr. Fattig was similar to one made by Dr. Leon P. Smith, professor of chemistry and geology at Wesleyan College, who said that the appearance of the heads do not conform with natural laws in connection with the bodies. Other experts have said they believe the objects are fakes.

New Phone Building Is Damaged by Bolt

Downtown Atlanta was startled and occupants of the new toll building of the telephone company and Wesley Memorial church were frightened Tuesday afternoon when a double-tongued bolt of lightning struck chimneys of the two structures, sending bricks rattling to the ground below.

The church edifice suffered most, with a large number of bricks unloosed, many falling on an auto parked near the structure walls. Bricks were thrown from several corners and a crack was left in the wall near the basement. I. H. Dowling, a music teacher who has studios in the building, was hauled to the floor by the concussion, while Miss Mary Baker, secretary, and the pastor, Dr. Felton Williams, both felt the shock.

Across Auburn avenue at Ivy street at the telephone building the lightning did no more than knock a few bricks out of a chimney on the southeast corner, telephone officials said. The flash of lightning, which struck about 2:30 o'clock during a deluge of rain, could be seen all over the downtown section and the reverberation was deafening in the Five Points sector.

Join the moderns---Already more than a Million women cook Electrically!

Not a Different Way but a Better Way with a UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC RANGE

Some housewives have the idea that Electric Cookery requires special knowledge and technique. Nothing could be further from the facts. You don't need to learn to cook all over again. It's so simple to cook Electrically that a twelve-year-old daughter can cook a meal as easily as her mother. It's a BETTER way, yes—but not a different way!

30 Months to Pay

Universal Model 3593 has been reduced to $94.95 cash. Its term price is slightly higher, but you pay only $4.95 down, the balance in 30 monthly installments. Act now on 1932 electric range prices and these liberal terms. Begin cooking Electrically.... the better way!

Westinghouse Model D-431, all-enamel, fully-automatic, is priced at $89.95 cash during our sale. On terms you pay only $4.95 down, the balance as little as $3.38 a month for 30 months.

The average price of electric service in homes served by this Company is 36.3% lower than it was in 1913, yet the general cost of living is still far ABOVE prices of 1913.

New Jersey Visitor Is Being Honored At Informal Affairs

Miss Helen Artt, of Norristown, N. J., is forming the inspiration for a number of informal social events at the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grier Martin at their home on Briardell road, in Denit Hills. Mrs. Martin will honor her guest at a bridge-luncheon today at her home introducing her visitor to her circle of friends. Robert Martin was host at a small dinner last evening honoring Miss Artt. Covers were placed for members of the family and a few friends. Boree Martin, of New York city, assisted his brother in entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cooledge will entertain a small group of friends at dinner this evening honoring the attractive visitor. Covers will be placed for only a small number.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Brown will be hosts at dinner Friday evening at their home on Forrest avenue in compliment to Miss Artt. The guests will number a few of their circle of friends. Several other informal affairs will be given for this visitor.

Mrs. Thompson Feted at Parties.

Mrs. Louis H. Thompson, of Statesboro, Ga., the guest of her sister, Mrs. William J. McGee at her home on Waverly way, has been honored at a series of parties during her visit. Mrs. J. M. Arthur entertained at a bridge-tee yesterday afternoon. Mrs. George W. Woods, of Decatur, Ga., was hostess at a bridge-luncheon recently honoring Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. N. D. Jones entertained at a spend-the-day party honoring this visitor. Mrs. J. B. Burton entertained at bridge Monday afternoon. Mrs. William McGee honored her sister at a bridge party. The guests included Mesdames George W. Woods, Herman Metcalf, J. M. Christian, F. W. Douglas, I. B. Burton, A. C. Frost, W. A. Pangborn, F. A. Kroner, G. W. Adams, Harold Thompson, C. T. Wells, N. D. Jones, Lee Strickland, J. M. Arthur, A. T. Neal, Misses Alida Bolding and Bessie Cook.

Miss Gladys Beck To Wed Mr. Earp.

GRiffin, Ga., Aug. 16.—The wedding plans of Miss Gladys Hammond Beck and Conje Burnford Earp will be of wide interest to a large circle of friends in the state. The engagement was announced in July by the prospective bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erasmus William Beck, and the wedding will take place August 22 at their home on South Hill street at 4 o'clock. Dr. J. E. Sammons, pastor of the Vineville Baptist church, Macon, formerly of the First Baptist church, Griffin, will perform the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and close friends. Music will be rendered by Miss Thelma Briesendine, at the piano, and Mr. Earp's sister, Miss Bertie Earp, of Selma, N. C., an accomplished violinist.

Miss Sara Beck, the bride's sister, will be the maid of honor, and the only attendant. The prospective bridegroom's brother, Dr. Elmo Earp, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will act as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple will leave on their wedding journey. They will make their home on Long Island, where Mr. Earp is head of the Latin department of the Garden City High school.

HER MOTHER TOLD HER

EVERY month it was the same story. Headaches and backaches. Jumpy nerves. Always tired out by mid-day.

She hated to talk about her trouble. She tried to hide it. But you can't hide things like that from a mother. So her mother told her—that every mother should tell her daughter.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made for just such trying times. Taken regularly it ends fatigue and irritability. Makes life worth living... every week... every month. Won't you give it a chance to help you?

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

Though only 18 years old I have a husband and a baby. My husband seems to adore the child but he is indifferent to me. We can't agree about anything and when mother takes sides with me he says nothing at the time but takes his spite out on me later. He lost his job soon after we were married and we have to depend on pick-up work for our support. We live at my home, otherwise we couldn't make ends meet. Could the fact that he is out of regular work account for his ill-humors? What can I do to help matters?

YOUNG WIFE.

ANSWER:

Most certainly your husband's financial worries could account for his ill-humors. Nothing is more galling to a man's pride than to have to dump his family into the lap of his wife's people. Matters are not improved by the interference of a mother-in-law in the disagreements between him and his wife. You may not be able to move into a home of your own while your husband has no job but you can prevent your mother's participation in your finances with your husband. If in no other way, then by refraining from any arguments in her presence. According to your own statement you bear the brunt of her running to your rescue although she intends to help you by so doing. Tell her that you recognize her motives as being the best in the world but that all of you will be happier if she will let you settle your own disputes without her aid.

Never have women had a better opportunity than they have now to bolster their husbands' flagging courage, to soothe their wounded pride, and to encourage and inspire them to keep up their fighting spirit. These are dark days for men whose earnings are meagre but whose expenses are increased with the arrival of babies, with the cost of sickness and with the other obligations that depressions do not diminish. Young though you are, and disappointed and disillusioned, you must realize that much depends on you and that if you will meet this emergency bravely the next one will be less difficult and so on to the end.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(P)—

The railroad issues led the securities market upward today, bringing the average level of shares back to the approximate peak of the summer recovery registered last June.

Important news developments of a character to influence the market were lacking, and prices swung over a wide range, the closing closing substantially under the best.

Yesterday's smart comeback, after the selling late last week, precipitated a rush of buying and short covering in the opening transactions, which boosted many prices 1 to 7 points, and delayed the tickers several minutes.

The market cooled down somewhat as trading wore on, although rails had a fresh burst of strength at midday. The tick closed with numerous advances of 1 to 4 points. Turnover was 3,611,575 shares, or close to last Friday's.

Bulls in stocks were impressed by a rise of nearly $1 a bale in cotton to new highs for the movement in the morning, but this advance had been cut to 30 to 50 cents at the close. Rumors of tight and fast about the proposed fund to finance the movement of raw materials to fabricators.

After the close of the market, Chesapeake and Ohio ordered the regular quarterly dividend of 62-1/2 cents, leaving that carrier the only one of the major roads which has not cut its dividend to stockholders since 1929.

The more hopeful attitude toward the rails received fresh impetus in unofficial Wall Street estimates that New York Central might announce a dividend for August, after showing a deficit of more than $3,000,000 in June, and a substantial loss for July. The stock was heavily bought, rising more than 2 points to a new top for the movement. Chesapeake and Ohio pushed up 2-3/8, but finished a point under the top.

U. S. Steel was a feature of the opening, advancing about 5 points with a 10,000-share transaction. It closed at 13-1/8, up 3.

Foreign Markets

LONDON.—Trading cheerful due to success of conversion plan but ill-gedged security market. Argentinean issues appreciably stronger. Trans-Atlantic issues appreciably stronger. Trans-Atlantic issues appreciably stronger.

PARIS.—Prices showed firm tendency after three-day holiday. Trading good. Most Wall Street, reflecting calm for most part and firms improved. Closing well disposed.

BERLIN.—Prices firm with an upward tendency on hopeful international outlook.

'Kingfish' in Pajamas, Locked Out of Home

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16.—(AP) Huey P. Long, one of the most impatient men in America, had to sit for two hours the other morning in the garden of his home dressed only in his famous green pajamas, to wait for his negro cook to let him in the house.

He had been "bathing" at his home during the absence of his family and at 5 o'clock in the morning he went out on the front porch to get his morning paper and the door clicked behind him. He tried the back door, but it was locked, too.

So the "Kingfish" had to sit down and shiver until the cook came with a key. "I believe it would have been worse if I had had on a night-shirt," he said.

week-end and that the water ran into the shoe store adjoining. When she came to work Monday morning, she alleges, she slipped and threw her hip out of joint and received other injuries.

Platinums On Way Out, Hairdressers Declare
CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The platinum blonde may soon be a red-head.

Max Hofer, president of the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers' Association, at a style show preview yesterday predicted this.

He made it plain, however, that the moderately blonde woman may remain a moderate blonde and still be in fashion, but that those with the extremely light shades probably would come out with brand new titian locks. It would be either that he said, or a coppery bronze.

BRITAIN ALLOCATES CONGRESS OF INDIA

Moslems, Hindus, 'Untouchables,' Women, All To Be Represented.

BY HARRY FLORY.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(UP)—The British government tonight attempted to cut the Gordian knot in India's turbulent political life by announcing provisional settlement of the ancient communal struggle between Hindus and Moslems.

This settlement is intended to blast out the chief obstacle to progress toward self-government for the great sub-continent of 380,000,000 persons—but Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald admitted it probably will be criticized by every community in India.

The government was forced to act after the Indian leaders, including the Mahatma M. K. Gandhi, now in prison for his activities against British rule, had failed completely in efforts to strike a compromise.

Britain had warned India that she must agree on the representation to be given each of the conglomeration of races in ten provinces. These factions speak 20 different languages, practice 20 different religions and some are constantly at war or embroiled in rioting.

The chief struggle has been between Hindus, numbering 200,000,000, and the Moslems, numbering 75,000,000. Another important faction is 45,000,000 so-called "untouchables," the lowest of the Hindu castes.

Aside from the clauses attempting to divide representation in the legislatures according to racial population, one of the most interesting features of the settlement was a guarantee that 37 seats in the proposed new legislatures should be to women.

This used to be a source of indignation in Indian women that they do not want such privileged treatment.

The settlement gives the Moslems ample legislative representation in the northwest frontier province, and the Sind, where they are strongest, and a bare working majority in the Punjab, where strength is more equally divided.

No faction has a majority in the great state of Bengal, where the Moslems are about 200,000,000. They will get a couple more through special constituencies.

Provision is made for separate electorates for Hindus, Moslems, Sikhs, Indian-Christians, Anglo-Indians, Europeans. Special constituencies are provided for land holders, commerce, industry and labor, giving each an assured representation in the legislatures.

The untouchables will vote with the Hindu constituencies, but also will have separate constituencies, where they are most numerous, thus giving them a double vote despite the vigorous protests of Gandhi.

PROMINENT VIRGINIAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH
NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Walton Coles Cabot, Newport lawyer and a member of a prominent Virginia family died yesterday. He was born at Richmond, Va., and practiced law there and in New York before coming here in 1910. He was treasurer of the Art Association of Newport and the Reading Room. He married Charlotte Scott, who died six years ago. He leaves a daughter. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

MRS. JANE CAMPBELL.
CLEARWATER, Fla., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Jane Campbell, 77, Largo, who died Sunday night following a brief illness, was buried in Sylvan Abbey cemetery near Safety Harbor today.

Mrs. Campbell was one of Pinellas county's real pioneers, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McMillen, who came here in the early days from Quilman, Ga.

MRS. CORNELIA BRINLEY.
LAKEWOOD, N. J., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Cornelia Brinley, who attained local fame through an acquaintance with John D. Rockefeller Sr., died today from the infirmities of age. Her age was the same as Mr. Rockefeller's 93.

The capitalist, driving through in an automobile one day five years ago, saw her working in her garden and stopped to talk. Since then he usually has visited her at least once a year.
